

David Eisenberg, MD '95
2004 Distinguished Alumni
2004 Outstanding Recent Graduate Award Recipient

David Eisenberg, MD graduated from Stony Brook's School of Medicine in 1995. Stony Brook University School of Medicine is proud to present its first Outstanding Recent Graduate Award to Dr. David Eisenberg. This award is to recognize the contributions of young alumni who have demonstrated excellence through professional development, research, or community involvement.

Dr. Eisenberg's medical specialty is pediatrics and he is partner at West Sayville Children's Medical Services, West Sayville, New York. In 1991, he graduated Cum Laude from Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania and completed his Pediatric Residency at North Shore University in Manhasset, New York in 1998.

A member of several Medical Societies, Dr. Eisenberg also served on the Stony Brook University School of Medicine Alumni Council from 2000-2003, and was Chair of the Professional Development Series Planning Committee for Stony Brook University Health Sciences Center, 2003 and 2004, and Chair of the Stony Brook University School of Medicine Managed Care Coding and Billing Conference Planning Committee for 2004.

It is the privilege of Stony Brook University School of Medicine to commend David Eisenberg, MD on his service and commitment to the medical profession and to our School of Medicine.
